

Employer Guide

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University Career Services

Identifying and hiring talent is a priority for any organization. Giving you a solution to support your recruitment efforts is what we do in Career Services at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. There are various participation levels available with Career Services, from virtual support through high-touch interactions.

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University is a global, multi-campus environment with students and alumni from many industries and experience levels, and we specialize in aviation and aerospace. The diversity of our student and alumni populations is extensive, and they come from over 57 focused degree programs.

Employer Support

Coordinate with Career Services to implement any of these options.

Advertise Opportunities

- Access the career management and jobs system, Handshake
- Share full-time opportunities with a wide-range of candidates
- Search resumes from job seekers
- Hire interns via the Co-op/Internship Program
- Promote openings via social media platforms such as Twitter and LinkedIn

Participate in Career-related Events

- Fall and Spring Industry/Career Expos
- Alumni-related events
- Guest speaker sessions
- University initiatives

Build an On-campus Presence

- Interviews
- Information sessions and tables
- Class and faculty meetings
- Student groups
- Support of Daytona Beach Co-op Assistance Award